dates from Nepali to English and the other way around in a simple manner.. The date needs to be in that order, otherwise the app won't work The application proves very handy if you are looking for a quick way of getting accurate dates that can be used in important official documents which need to be validated by governmental or nongovernmental offices which make use of this dating system.. After typing in the Nepali date in year, month and day format, the application converts it into a Gregorian date.
